Notes for Martha Johnson:
Death of Invalid Girl.
Beneath a canopy of flowers, tokens of love from relatives and Friend, sleeps Martha Johnson, who died Monday at 12:45 P.M. She rests between her mother, who died in 1909, and her brother, whose death occurred in 1912. She had long been ill from tuberculosis of the spine. Martha was 16 years old when she was summoned home. Left motherless, she went to live at the age of 15 months with her uncle, Louis Tingle, and his good wife. Mr. Tingle died in 1920, and his wife and his niece came to live in our village. Both endeared themselves to our people. Mrs. Tingle for her kindness and devotion to the little girl, and Martha by her sweet and gentle ways. Her funeral was largely attended. Martha was a consecrated member of the Baptist church, and Mrs. Tingle a devoted member of the Christian Church, and both congregations, with their pastors, were present. Rev. Mr. Cothrin, her pastor was assisted in conducting the funeral by Rev. Mr. Chatham. He portrayed the life of this beautiful Christian character, who spread sunshine wherever she went. Often she smiled to cheer others when her frail little body was in pain. Her Aunt Nannie, who took the place of a most devoted mother: her uncle Robert Moore; her father, Calvert Johnson, and her brothers have the sympathy of all. Conscious to the last, she specified sometime she would be at rest, spoke of the songs she would have sung, entreated her aunt to hold her tight, remarking, "I love every one, but I love you Auntie, best of all." When the end came she spoke of her mother and the angels, and her last words were, "My Savior watches me."
