GREETINGS!

At this season of the year your editor, on behalf of the staff, expresses sincere wishes to our readers for a joyful Christmas and a happy and healthy New Year.

THE EXTENDED TINGLE FAMILY!
Which branch are you interested in?

Our last issue carried an invitation to submit the name and address of any subscriber together with the specific Tingle family branch in which that reader is interested. There were no objections to this proposal; consequently we are glad to list below the following subscribers:

Mrs. Bettie Grammer Faulks, 4892 Cummings Road, Eureka, CA. 95501 is researching:
JOHN TINGLE - North Carolina
JOHN PURIFOY TINGLE - North Carolina
WILLIAM P. H. TINGLE - Georgia
WILLIAM F. TINGLE - Mississippi
EFFIE L. TINGLE - (Grammer) - Mississippi

Mrs. William B. (Joan K.) Tingle, 26936 Delridge Lane, Valley Center, CA 92082 is interested in:
SOLOMON TINGLE of Craven County, N.C.'s line, especially his son JOHN, but also interested in his son, SOLOMON, and daughter, MARY, who married WILLIAM KING.

Ms. Juanita Vinson, P.O. Box 502 630 N. Edgewood Terrace, Mustang, OK 73064, (405) 45-4003 is seeking information about her branch of the Tingle family, specifically WILLIAM T. TINGLE, b. ca. 1803 in Adair Co., KY and d. 19 Oct. 1867 in Montgomery Co., IL. He was married twice and had nine children by his first wife.

(OR FAYETTE CO, KY)

Mr. E. Travis Kimbrell, 8821 Sumpter Road, Adger, Ala. 35006, (205) 425-8501 is searching for any and all information of the Tingles. On 30 Aug. 1988 he wrote to David P. Shaw of Reston, Va. as follows:

"Dear Mr. Shaw,

I am a descendant of JACK TINGLE. Since the Tingle name is so rare, I am searching any and all information of the Tingles. I am searching marriage dates and places, on any and all Tingles I possibly can.

I am storing all my genealogy information at the genealogy department of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. They have approximately one billion names there, and very few Tingles.

I am enclosing a pedigree chart as far back as I have gotten on the Tingle line.

Sincerely,

Travis Kimbrell

P.S. I will pay reasonable copying charges and mailing fees to receive this information."

Ed. note - Travis is a subscriber to TINGLE DESCENDANTS and we are pleased to include in this issue, his pedigree chart. It is rewarding to find an increasing number of younger people genuinely interested in their Tingle heritage. It is hoped that one or more of our readers will be able to help him.

Literary talent continues to surface from among many Tingle descendants. On the following pages we are pleased to include a well written and documented article by Joan K. Tingle of Valley Center, California. She is the wife of William Berner Tingle, Jr., a sixth generation descendant of John Tingle of Craven County, N. C. and the latter's wife, Sarah Purifoy. His ancestor chart appeared in the previous issue (Fall 1988) of the newsletter. Her story, titled MONROE MEMORIES, starts on the next page:

MONROE MEMORIES

By May 1862, the alarming news of the critical defeat of the Confederate forces at the Battle of Shiloh, near Pittsburg Landing, Tennessee on April 6 and 7, 1862 must have been known throughout the Confederate states. The South had suffered heavy losses in the Western theater of the war and replacement troops were being urgently recruited.

On May 6, 1862, the four youngest sons of Daniel and Parthenia Tingle of Monroe County, Georgia enlisted in Company H, 32nd Regiment Georgia Volunteer Infantry-Army of Tennessee.¹

Daniel Tingle, the eldest son of John and Sara Purifoy Tingle who migrated to Georgia from North Carolina in about the year 1803², had married Parthenia Hatcher in Jefferson County, Georgia in 1823³ and had settled near his father's home in Monroe County by 1830.⁴ By the Civil War era, the Tingle family was well established in the Blount Community and active in the Paran Primitive Baptist Church there.⁵ Sons and daughters of Daniel and Parthenia had married into neighboring families and were established on their own farms in the area.⁶ Monroe County was not an area of large plantations but rather one of substantial farms cleared from the gentle pine covered hills.⁷

Solomon Willie, the youngest son of Daniel and Parthenia was a lad sixteen years old when he enlisted on May 6, 1862.⁸ His birth date was October 20, 1846. It is recorded that he was in an army hospital in Savannah, Georgia in July 1862, but he later returned to his regiment and served until April 26, 1865 when he surrendered in Greensboro, North Carolina at the end of the tragic conflict.⁹ Solomon married Georgia Ann McCallum in 1868, settled in Henry County, Georgia, had a family of ten children and is buried in Beersheba Primitive Baptist Church Cemetery in Locust Grove, Georgia.¹⁰

Another son of Daniel and Parthenia, McCarroll, who was born November 9, 1833, had been married in 1858 to Mary Ann Persons Castleberry and when he enlisted in the Confederate forces he left his wife with two small daughters and a newborn son.¹¹ On February 20, 1864, McCarroll was wounded in the left leg at Ocean Pond, Florida. Records show he was captured at Macon, Georgia April 20-21, 1865.¹² He returned home upon his release to farm and care for his wife and children. He is buried near his father and mother in Paran Cemetery in Blount, Monroe County.¹³

The third son of this Tingle family who enlisted on that day in May 1862 was James Lafayette Tingle. Pension records show he was wounded in the left leg and permanently disabled at Ocean Pond, Florida February 20, 1864, and never returned to his regiment.¹⁴ His birth date was December 25, 1840, and during his long and active life he married twice. His first wife, whom he married December 26, 1866, was Sarah E. McCallum. After her death, he married, on February 26, 1884, Tommie Tucker. He fathered eight children by each wife and has hundreds of descendants throughout the South.¹⁵ James Lafayette lived to be almost ninety years old and died April 23, 1930.¹⁶

The fourth son of the Daniel Tingle family who enlisted on this same day in 1862 was Archibald Daniel who was born February 5, 1835. He and Mary Mahala Treadwell had married in 1856, and they had three young sons at the time Daniel Archibald left home to fight for the cause in which he believed. He served for three years and surrendered at the cessation of hostilities in Greensboro, North Carolina on April 26, 1865.¹⁷ To quote from the obituary of Archibald Daniel Ting in a Monroe County newspaper, " At the close of the war he came home to his wife and children to begin again with what the Yankees had left him and to live in peace the rest of his life".¹⁸ "Mr. Archie" and "Miss Haley" had six more children, and he was a prosperous farmer and storekeeper in the community where he was born and lived all his life.¹⁹ Daniel Archibald Tingle died March 3, 1917. He is buried in Mt. Vernon Baptist Church Cemetery in Butts County, Georgia.²⁰

The Civil War years were a sad and trying period for parents both in the North and in the South. Daniel and Parthenia were fortunate that all four of their soldier sons returned home to live long and useful lives. Their daughter, Louisa Jane, lost her husband, Enoch Tollerson, during his army service, and Daniel's nephew, Jesse Tingle, the eldest son of John J. and Duemna Tingle died of variola fever while on active duty in 1863.²¹

So that homecoming in the early summer of 1865 was a dichotomy of joy and sorrow, hope and despair. But hope prevailed—hope for the future of the South and for the whole nation united once more.

"Miss Mary Tingle of Athens, Georgia is, as far as I know, the last living grandchild of Confederate War veteran, Archibald Daniel Tingle, the son of Daniel and Parthenia. Miss Mary is retired from the faculty of the University of Georgia, and she is a gracious Southern gentlewoman. We visited her last summer while in the South."

AMERICA'S 100 MOST IMPORTANT WOMEN!

Do you know that a Tingle descendant qualifies for the honor of being included in this group? The November issue of THE LADIES HOME JOURNAL carried an article and picture which listed ANNA FISHER among this distinguished company of women. To quote the JOURNAL:

"Anna Fisher, a physician, she became the first mother to go on a space mission. At 39, she's now expecting her second child - and she's also expecting to remain an active astronaut."

Dr. Anna Fisher made her flight four years ago aboard the space shuttle DISCOVERY. She is the wife of Dr. William Fisher, also an astronaut. Their first child, Kristin Anne Fisher, was 14 months old at the time. Various newspapers carried the story, and one, a Massachusetts paper showed a picture of the child being held by her grandmother, FREIDA TINGLE.

■ Paving the way in space

We thank Joan K. Tingle and Dixie T. Willis for supplying the above information. Can anyone give us the addresses of Anna Fisher and little Kristin's grandmother, Freida Tingle? We would like to add their names to the mailing list of TINGLE DESCENDANTS.

We are indebted to Mrs. Jackie Goldman of Waterloo, Ontario, Canada for compiling the list below. She is a member of our staff. Do you recognize a TINGLE ancestor herein?

Charles Len Tingle is a son of the esteemed couple shown herein. His ancestor chart appears on the next page. He is very anxious to learn something about JOSIAH TINGLE, his great great grandfather who was probably born about 1800 in Alabama or Georgia - maybe Kentucky. Can any of our readers help him? Address Charles L. Tingle, 5629 Groom Road, Baker, LA 70714.

News Note from THE BORDERER, Snow Hill, Maryland, printed and published weekly (in 1835) by Lewis Caton of Snow Hill:

" 2-17,1835/Dwelling house of JOHN TINGLE, JR. in upper part of this county (Worcester) destroyed by fire. "

The above is reprinted through the courtesy of Family Line Publications, Silver Spring, Maryland and compiled by Mr. F. Edward Wright.

Since JOHN seems to be the favorite name in nearly all Tingle generations, it will take further research to uncover which one suffered this loss. Will one of our readers kindly step forth and identify this JOHN TINGLE?

TINGLE DESCENDANTS

MORE ABOUT THE NORTH CAROLINA AND GEORGIA TINGLES!

Our family newsletter seems to gradually be fulfilling one of its functions, namely a clearing house for information about specific TINGLE family lines. Mrs. Joan K. Tingle (wife of William Berner Tingle, Jr.) who lives at 26936 Delridge Lane, Valley Center, CA 92082 wrote several months ago as follows:

" - - - - - I have made good progress in gathering information about the children of John Tingle and his wife Sarah Purifoy. A very helpful woman, Jane Newton, who works in the Monroe County courthouse in Forsyth, Georgia, found a copy of the administrator's report for the estate of John who died in 1833. As John left no will, his widow and eight surviving children shared equally in the settlement of the estate. Four sons and one daughter are named, and the husbands of the other three daughters received their portion. With the help of Ann Lila of Mesa, Arizona and the marriage records of Monroe County, I have been able to identify the married daughters.

The administrator's report is a fascinating piece of history, as the prices of all slaves and farm and home equipment sold are listed. The widow, Sarah, was required to buy her home and furnishings from the estate.

Still, many unanswered questions. When did Sarah die? Where are she and John buried? We recently made a hasty trip to Monroe County and found Daniel and Parthenia's graves in Paran Cemetery. Does anyone know for certain if Parthenia is the daughter of Jesse Hatcher?

I am enclosing an ancestor chart and a copy of the administrator's report. Purifoy Tingle, son of John, was the administrator. Also a pedigree chart for my husband's father, William Berner Tingle, Sr. (Ed.'s note-sorry we cannot reproduce the four page administrator's report in the newsletter).

Of course the big question which many of us are seeking to answer is: WHAT IS THE PARENTAGE OF SOLOMON TINGLE WHO WAS IN THE MILITIA IN SOMERSET (WORCESTER) COUNTY, MARYLAND IN 1749?"

Editor's note - He, too, would like to know the answer to this question which has eluded him during the past seventeen years of research.

WHAT THE LOCKWOODS HAD TO SAY ABOUT THE TINGLES!

Among old bible records collected by various D. A. R. Chapters in Delaware and stored among the State Archives in the Hall of Records at Dover, is the bible of "The Lockwood Family". One page reads:

"The Tingles were a noble family; most of them were Episcopalians and Methodists, and all well off financially, except James who was rather poor."

James Tingle married Leah Lockwood and they appear to have been the parents of William Tingle who married Catherine Long 16 Oct. 1828. This couple, in turn, had nine children, one of whom was Manain Tingle (1830-1915) who married Mary Truitt (1828-1897).

In a future issue of the newsletter we hope to give more information on this Delaware - Maryland branch of the Tingle family.

CORRECTION

Page 10 of our Fall issue (Vol. 2-No.1) incorrectly stated that the late Beulah Rawls Tingle of Arapahoe, N.C. was the daughter of Talmadge H. Tingle. She was, in fact, his widow. Her maiden name was Beulah Rawls, daughter of Edward J. Rawls and his wife, Agnes Bowen. Therefore, she was not a descendant of James Tingle of Craven County, N.C. It is her daughter, Dixie Tingle Willis, who is a sixth generation descendant of this James Tingle. Your editor apologizes to Mrs. Willis and all other members of the family for the error.

THANK YOU, CONTRIBUTORS!

Since publication of the Fall issue of our newsletter, contributions to help defray the cost of printing and mailing have been received from the following:

- | | |
|-----------------------|--|
| Ms. Jean Bless — | Mrs. Dallas Morrison — |
| Mr. Travis Kimbrell — | Mr. Ross F. Tingle — |
| Mrs. Ann T. Lila — | Robert E. & Virginia Tingle — |
| Ms. Elaine Mitchell — | |

The staff thanks each of the above for their support.

The present edition of 'TINGLE DESCENDANTS' marks our sixth issue. Thanks to the contributions received from approximately one hundred persons on our mailing list, there is enough money in the bank to pay for this issue and hopefully the next.

The postage, printing and professional typing usually runs about $150. per issue. In essence, it really depends on the number of pages.

Thus far, your staff has been reluctant to establish an annual subscription fee, as we prefer voluntary contributors rather than subscribers. As of this date we will continue to depend upon the generosity of those on our mailing list in helping to defray the cost. As we enter 1989 we ask that our readers continue to send a contribution to:
