"OLD SHADRACK"

By

DIXIE T. WILLIS

Mrs. Mary Ada Tingle Kellar, who lives near Grantsboro, N.C. recalls her grandfather, Josiah, talking about Shadrack leaving home and going west, never to be heard from again. Many family members believed that he died long before he apparently did die.

The North Carolina Genealogical Society Quarterly, Nov. issue 1984, carried this series of "Letters to the Clerk of the County Court" Call # 028-928.3, located in the Archives in Raleigh, N.C. It reads:

#55. 15 Sept. 1851 from Levi Town, Harpers Ferry, Jefferson Co., Virginia, to Mr. J.G. Stanley, C.C. "I wrote you soliciting information relative to who are the next of kin to the Estate of Perry Tingle, intestate...please inform me"

17 Sept. 1851, response to Levi Town: "Perry Tingle married Rhoda, the daughter of Frank Vendrick - upon the decease of Perry Tingle, his widow and some of the children moved to some northern state - the following are some of the children of Perry Tingle"....

"Shadrack Tingle, his eldest son, went to some Western State and the place of residence is unknown to his friends.

Polly Tingle (Mary) married Darius Durfrey...and moved to the North. Fanny Tingle, a daughter, married Will L. Corbin (July 17, 1827). Fanny died a few years ago and Corbin lives in Craven Co., N.C. Ferebee, a daughter, married Edward Barbee and moved to the State of Vermont.

Sidney, a daughter, and Perry and Benjamin, youngest sons, moved to the North and Perry and Benjamin are reported dead." (end of letter).

Other children of Perry and Rhoda were taken from a family Bible owned by Nancy Tingle of Bayboro, N.C. 1-Josiah who married Betsey Fanning, August 7, 1828. 2-Gideon? (have not been able to separate from other Gideons). 3-Lucy M., no information on Lucy.

About the middle of March 1989, I received a phone call one Sunday afternoon from Laura Walker who lives in Little Rock, Arkansas. Laura's ancestor was a John Tinkle, who married Johanna Burrige in 1813 in Rowan County, N.C. Laura is trying to learn who his parents are and where he was born, and wanted to know if I might have run across any Tinkles in my research on Tingles.

HUGH TINGLE IN ENGLAND

Research by Mark Bonthron, a professional genealogist in London, has developed some partial information about the name Tingle in England. He has inspected various parish registers, many of which he reports are in a "deplorable condition due to the passing of time and a few accidents." Herewith some passages:

From St. Paul's Covent Garden, Westminster, London -
Baptisms:

28 Oct. 1660 Theodosia, dau. of Hugh and Alice Tingle
28 Dec. 1662 Hugh, son of Hugh and Alice Tingle
29 Nov. 1664 Ann, dau. of Hugh and Alice Tingle

Burials:

20 Sept. 1663 Hugh, son of Hugh Tingle, buried in church yard.

The above would seem to say that the child, Hugh Tingle, born in 1662, died nine months later. If true, this would rule out his being the Hugh Tingle who emigrated to Maryland in 1669 (see Vol. 1, No. 1 and 2 of TINGLE DESCENDANTS). Neither could it have been his father, Hugh, husband of Alice, because he would have been about 93 years old upon his death in 1733. There are no burial entries for Tingles in this register of St. Paul's which Mr. Bonthron points out "is not the St. Paul's."

From Whitton, Lincolnshire parish register -
Baptisms:

1 Mar. 1621 Syman Tingle, to Hugh Tingle
1 Mar. 1621 John Tingle, to Hugh Tingle

Probably twins. This Hugh Tingle would have been much too old to have been the Maryland immigrant.

From Donington-in-Holland, Lincolnshire parish register -
Baptisms:

22 Oct. 1626 Hugh Tingle, to Hugh Tingle

This child may have been a brother to the aforementioned twins, Syman and John, except for the fact that the two parishes of Whitton and Donington are some 75 miles apart - a long distance in those days. And, the child would have been too old to have been our Maryland Hugh Tingle.

From Lincoln, St. Peter, Eastgate, Lincolnshire parish register -
Baptisms:

28 Sept. 1635 Thomas Tingle, to Siman Tingle

From Winterton, Lincolnshire parish register -
Marriages:

20 Oct. 1647 Syman Tingle to Isabell Kitchin

From Whitton, Lincolnshire parish register -
Baptisms:

10 June 1646 Hugh Tingle, to Syman Tingle
27 July 1648 Ann Tingle, to Syman Tingle

MAGNA CHARTA BARONS

Mrs. B. Lynn Thom of Lake Providence, Louisiana is a descendant of John Tingle and Sarah (Sally) Purifoy, his wife. From articles and genealogical charts appearing in TINGLE DESCENDANTS, readers know that this couple were married 13 May 1795 in Craven County, N.C. Shortly thereafter they removed to Georgia.

Sarah Purifoy Tingle was a daughter of Thomas Purifoy whose ancestor of the same name was born 1578 in England, emigrated to Elizabeth City County, Virginia in 1620 in the ship 'George' and died 1655.

The Purifoy Line of descent has been proved back to five Barons, one of whom was Sir Goeffry de Saye, Admiral of the King's Fleet. He was one of the twenty-five Barons who presented their demands to King John of England in the form of a Royal Grant. This took place in the "meadow which is called Runnemedede on the 15th day of June, A.D. 1215." The reluctant consent by the King, attested by his seal, resulted in Magna Charta (The Great Charter), forerunner of constitutional liberty as we know it today.

Mrs. Thom has kindly furnished information about the Magna Charta Barons and the Dames, including the enclosed chart which illustrates the lineage of the Purifoy's. Some of our readers may already be members of this fine hereditary society. Eligibility for membership consists of lineal descent from one of the Barons. Invitations to nominees for membership are issued in accordance with rules established by The National Society of Magna Charta Dames and The Somerset Chapter Magna Charta Barons, both headquartered in Philadelphia, PA.
