TINGLES IN GLOUCESTER, ENGLAND

One of our newest TINGLE descendants and a supporter of our newsletter is Ms. Donna Fraser of Coquitlam, British Columbia, Canada. Her great grandfather, George Mathew Tingle, came from Little Dean, Gloucester, England in 1870 via New York to Ontario, Canada in 1875. His wife, Susan, was Welsh.

Ms. Fraser is presently researching the Canadian family history and has a professional genealogist researching in the English/Welsh history, which she will share with our readers when she has acquired enough to prepare an article.

Back in 1992, Ms. Fraser was in the Cinderford area of Gloucester, England and found a manhole cover made by TINGLE & Sons, Ironmongers. With this interesting evidence, she believes that there are possibly distant relatives still living in the area.

Stay tuned for more information to be developed by and about our English/Welsh namesakes and ancestors!

TERRY TINGLE, COUNTRY MUSIC RECORDING STAR!

It is a privilege to finally be able to reproduce the picture and story below about TERRY TINGLE. For 17 years they have remained hidden in your editor's files for lack of identification. Now - in this issue of our family newsletter, due to her mother, Mrs. Emma Hitchens Tingle, and the research of Mrs. Betty Lee Tingle Todd of Ocean City, MD, we are able to give you the interesting story of Terry, who has been blind since birth.

Terry is the adopted daughter of the late David E. "Bus" Tingle and his wife, Emma Elizabeth Hitchens Tingle, both of Salisbury, MD. Terry's father died last year and his obituary is reproduced in this issue of our newsletter.

The picture and story about Terry are through the courtesy of the Baltimore (MD) SUN paper of 24 April 1978. She was then 26, and, in her younger days, a student at the Maryland School for the Blind in Baltimore. Now, age 43, she is married to Thomas E. Kowski and lives in Florida with their daughter. She does honor to the name of Tingle.

Blindness can't still voice

By Gabrielle Wise

Terry Tingle moved to Nashville five years ago "to be closer to the entertainers," but she doesn't mind coming home for special events. This time it's the Hopkins PlazAbility Fair Wednesday and Thursday, where she'll do a Brenda Lee medley and some gospel numbers.

Terry, blind since birth, will sing on the program sponsored by the Governor's Committee to Promote Employment for the Handicapped. "Not the whole time," she explains, "but between other entertainers" in 20-minute segments from 11.30 A.M. to 2 P.M.

"I've been singing all my life. I don't remember not singing. I like to be around the big stars so you don't faint when you meet them.

"All my recording sessions are in Nashville, the capital of the country music industry. It's Music City, U.S.A. Nashville is where my P.A. system and piano are. It's home to me now."

Originally from Salisbury, Terry Tingle, now 26, moved "up here when I was 4 because the school was here—the Maryland School for the Blind right here on Taylor avenue." The family she's visiting is her mother and father, Emma and David Tingle, a poodle and a chihuahua.

"A couple of times a year they visit me, and a couple of times I visit them. My home's near the airport, about 10 minutes, and near Opryland, too."

But Terry has done "local clubs here. I did Stardust, and the Seagull, and at schools. I did work with the Casuals, a backup group," she continued, a little Tennessee now in her speaking voice.

"I was 9 when I met Brenda Lee. I'm a personal friend of Brenda's. Since she's a big artist she goes over to Japan every year." And now Terry hopes to visit Japan, too, "maybe about a year from now, for only about six weeks.

"Brenda's teaching me Japanese phonetically—like syllable type things. She puts it all on cassettes." Then Terry reeled off the Japanese word for taxi, and phrases for "thank you very much" and "you're welcome."

"I have a couple of Japanese friends from a college in Nashville. I talk to them so I can keep in practice, while I'm on the road.

"My manager is Sheldon Freund. He's with the Louis Braille Foundation for Blind Musicians. He's done a lot for me, like putting ads in Rolling Stone and an article and a picture in Music City U.S.A.

"I had an interview with KFDI Wichita, and have done radio. I get lots of air play on WBMD, too. Clark West—he's the program director—has been great to me. He and Bobby Brown, a deejay on WBMD," continued Terry, making sure none of her benefactors has been forgotten.

"Some disc jockeys can't be bothered," added Terry's mother, Mrs. Emma Tingle, "but these..."

"I have worked with Carl Belew and Stonewall Jackson," Terry went on. "I went to Peabody for about six months, a long time ago. Since then I have gone to New York. I had the same instructor who taught Pat Boone and Lucille Ball. He's Carlo Merrotti—a three weeks' course. I take notes by tape recorder.

"I went to school about six months also at a studio in Nashville where the opry artists go."

Terry wants to be sure her song writer is mentioned. "He is Dewayne Orender. He was at RCA at one time. He wrote 'Reno,' my latest song. He's a singer, too. It's a western song. Pig Robbins is on it, too. He's the piano player."

Records Terry has on hand are "I'm Living in a Dream World," "Come Back Darling," "Papa's Sugar," "Don't Light the Fire," "Mixed Up Mind," and "If You Want to Come Back."

Normally she has to be in Nashville one or two weeks for a recording session, she says. At first "I would be in a motel and couldn't relax. I didn't buy a home at first."

But then, after being on the road, she wanted a home of her own. "I have a lady who stays and takes care of things. I could spend days at home and do all the things people normally dread like cleaning house. And a friend is going to put in a garden for me so I'm really happy!

"Don't you want to know what my hobbies are? Cooking. My specialty is chicken and dumplings. Skin the chicken first so it won't be fattening, then dip it in batter. I love fried chicken.

"And traveling," she adds. "I'm a religious person. If it wasn't for the Lord I wouldn't be in this business. Every day when I get up I read my Bible and pray and that's what gives you energy."

WHO CAN IDENTIFY CATHARINE TINGLE OF WILLIAMS COUNTY, OHIO?

Our eager genealogist, Ms. Elaine Mitchell of Lakewood, Ohio, has sent us the following note taken from "The Report", Winter 1992 publication of the Ohio Genealogical Society:

"TINGLE, CATHARINE
age 73, admitted to Williams County, Ohio Infirmary, Dec. 10, 1879, "destitute"; 40 year resident of Williams County, Ohio, died May 31, 1899."

This Tingle lady was therefore born in 1806 and died at age 93. Can any of our readers help to identify her? If so, please advise your editor or Ms. Mitchell at 14530 Clifton Blvd., #105, Lakewood, Ohio 44107.

DESCENDANTS OF JAMES AND LEAH LOCKWOOD TINGLE BEGIN TO SURFACE!

Through the interest and efforts of Capt. Richard A. Eldridge, USN (Ret.) of Virginia Beach, VA, his wife and her aunt, considerable information is now coming to light about numerous descendants of James Tingle and his wife, Leah Lockwood. Readers of recent issues in our family newsletter recognize that this couple was born in Delaware in the 1760's and emigrated to Eaton, Preble County, Ohio in 1828.

Two of James and Leah's grown children were William and Elisha Tingle. They remained in Delaware, married and raised families there. In turn, these two Tingle lines spawned many Tingle descendants. Their habitat in Delaware was close to the state line, and many of those Tingle descendants eventually moved to Worcester and Wicomico counties in Maryland. Consequently, records must be searched in both states.

Capt. Eldridge's wife is the former Elizabeth Ann Tingle, daughter of the late John Ralph Tingle and a descendant, in the seventh generation, from the aforementioned James Tingle. Her aunt, Mrs. Sadie Tingle Hadden, is a daughter of the late Charles Henry Tingle, and a sixth generation descendant of James.

We are reproducing two ancestor charts of Capt. and Mrs. Eldridge. The second one he was labeled "tentative." He is doing more research in Delaware, and when the Fall issue of our newsletter is released, we will include complete data and charts.

A VISIT TO REMEMBER!

Mr. and Mrs. Boyd M. Tingle of Wimberley, Texas and their daughter, Tricia, of Washington, D.C., paid a nice visit to your editor and his wife in Baltimore, MD on April 15th. What a grand time we had with these Tingle descendants who don't live just around the corner! They left Family Group Listing charts and a wonderful picture of some 50 Tingle descendants taken at a family reunion in Georgia early this century. More about this in a future edition of the newsletter!

MANY DESCENDANTS OF JAMES AND LEAH LOCKWOOD TINGLE IDENTIFIED!

Thanks to the enterprise of Mrs. Betty Tingle Todd of Ocean City, MD, Mrs. Gladys Davis of Delmar, MD/DE, and Mrs. Delma Tingle of Salisbury, MD, much progress has been made in identifying many descendants of James Tingle (1765 - 1849) and his wife, Leah Lockwood Tingle (1769 - 1850).

As described in recent issues of our family newsletter, this latter couple was born in Delaware, but emigrated to Eaton, Preble County, Ohio in 1828 with three of their eight children. Three other children died at a young age, but two, William and Elisha Tingle, remained in Sussex County, DE, living very close to the Maryland/Delaware line.

Eventually, many of the children of these two Tingles moved across the state line into Wicomico and Worcester counties. It is these descendants who are identified on the following charts. They comprise:

10 names in the fifth generation
24 names in the sixth generation
11 names in the seventh generation
1 name in the eighth generation

At this point in time, 300 descendants of James and Leah have been named. They are spread across our vast country, as recent issues of the newsletter have described. We appreciate the Family Group Listing Charts prepared by Mrs. Todd which are included in this edition.

Research is continuing to try to identify the father and mother of James Tingle. It would seem that he might be a descendant in the fourth or fifth generation of HUGH TINGLE who is generally considered to be the progenitor of the TINGLE name in America. Any reader(s) who can unlock this secret will have achieved a monumental task.
